TOS

THE COLLABORATORY

Terms of Service

Effective Date: September 28, 2026
Last Updated: September 28, 2026

These Terms of Service ("Terms") govern membership in, access to, and use of The Collaboratory, including its facilities, equipment, classes, events, websites, applications, reservation systems, and related services.

The Collaboratory is operated by The Crafty Studio ("The Collaboratory," "we," "us," or "our").

By creating an account, purchasing a membership or pass, making a reservation, registering for a class or event, or using The Collaboratory's facilities or services, you agree to these Terms and any additional policies applicable to the activity, facility, or equipment you use.

---

1. Eligibility and Accounts

Users may be required to create an account before purchasing services, entering the facility, reserving equipment or spaces, or participating in certain activities.

You agree to:

- Provide accurate and current information.
- Maintain the security of your account and access credentials.
- Not allow another person to use your badge, QR code, key, account, certification, or other access credential.
- Notify The Collaboratory if you believe your account or access credential has been compromised.

You are responsible for activity conducted using your account or credentials except where prohibited by applicable law.

Minimum age requirements and rules governing minors may vary by activity, space, or equipment.

Users under the applicable age of consent may be required to have a parent or legal guardian create or approve their account, sign required agreements, or accompany them while using certain facilities.

2. Memberships

The Collaboratory may offer one or more membership plans with different prices, benefits, access privileges, and restrictions.

Membership benefits may include access to designated facilities, equipment, reservation privileges, classes, events, or other services as described when the membership is purchased.

Membership does not guarantee unrestricted access to every space or piece of equipment.

Certain activities may require:

- Additional fees
- Reservations
- Safety training
- Equipment certification
- Staff authorization
- Age eligibility
- Additional waivers or agreements

Memberships are personal and may not be transferred or shared unless expressly permitted.

---

3. Recurring Memberships

Unless otherwise stated at purchase, recurring memberships automatically renew at the applicable billing interval until canceled.

By purchasing a recurring membership, you authorize The Collaboratory and its payment processor to charge the payment method associated with your account for recurring membership fees and applicable taxes.

You may cancel future renewal in accordance with the cancellation procedures provided by The Collaboratory.

Cancellation prevents future renewal but does not automatically entitle the member to a refund for a membership period that has already begun.

---

4. Day Passes and Other Access

The Collaboratory may offer day passes or other temporary access products.

Passes:

- Are valid only for the specified date, duration, or access period.
- Are generally non-transferable.
- May be subject to operating hours and facility capacity.
- Do not automatically include access to restricted equipment or spaces.
- May require completion of waivers, orientations, or other prerequisites.

---

5. Reservations

Certain equipment, studios, rooms, or other resources may require reservations.

Users agree to comply with reservation limits, cancellation requirements, check-in procedures, and other applicable booking policies.

A reservation does not override safety, certification, membership, age, or access requirements.

The Collaboratory may cancel, modify, or relocate reservations when necessary because of equipment failure, maintenance, facility closure, safety concerns, events, emergencies, or other operational needs.

When appropriate, affected fees may be refunded or credited according to the applicable cancellation policy.

---

6. Classes and Events

Classes, workshops, events, and other programs may have:

- Registration fees
- Attendance limits
- Age requirements
- Prerequisites
- Waitlists
- Cancellation deadlines
- Equipment or safety requirements

Registration does not guarantee participation if required eligibility or safety requirements have not been satisfied.

7. Equipment Use and Training

Some equipment at The Collaboratory requires training, certification, or specific authorization before use.

Users may operate restricted equipment only when their required authorization is current.

Users agree to:

- Follow posted instructions and safety requirements.
- Use required personal protective equipment.
- Follow instructions from authorized staff and instructors.
- Never bypass or disable safety systems.
- Immediately report damaged or malfunctioning equipment.
- Stop operating equipment if an unsafe condition exists.
- Use only materials approved for the applicable equipment.

Completion of a general facility waiver does not constitute authorization to operate specialized equipment.

The Collaboratory may suspend or revoke equipment privileges when reasonably necessary for safety or failure to comply with applicable policies.

---

8. Facility Conduct

Users must behave safely and respectfully toward other members, guests, employees, instructors, volunteers, and visitors.

Prohibited conduct includes:

- Unsafe equipment use
- Harassment or threatening behavior
- Intentional damage to property
- Unauthorized access to restricted areas
- Allowing unauthorized persons to use access credentials
- Operating equipment while materially impaired
- Interfering with safety systems
- Conduct that substantially disrupts facility operations or creates an unreasonable safety risk

The Collaboratory may restrict, suspend, or terminate access for violations of these Terms or other applicable facility policies.

---

9. Guests

Guest access may be permitted according to the applicable membership, event, or facility policy.

Guests may be required to:

- Register with The Collaboratory.
- Complete applicable waivers.
- Pay applicable fees.
- Remain with a sponsoring member.
- Meet age or supervision requirements.

A guest does not inherit the sponsoring member's training certifications, equipment permissions, or other restricted-access privileges.

---

10. Fees and Payments

Users are responsible for fees associated with memberships, passes, reservations, classes, equipment usage, damage charges where applicable, and other purchased services.

Payments may be processed by third-party payment providers.

The Collaboratory generally does not directly store complete payment card numbers when payments are processed through an authorized third-party payment processor.

Prices and membership offerings may change. Changes to recurring membership pricing will be communicated as required by applicable law and applicable membership terms.

---

11. Cancellations, Refunds, and Credits

Refund eligibility depends on the type of purchase and the applicable cancellation policy.

Unless otherwise stated:

- Membership cancellation prevents future renewal but does not automatically refund the current membership period.

- Reservation and class cancellations may be subject to advance-notice requirements.
- Late cancellations and no-shows may be non-refundable.
- If The Collaboratory cancels a paid reservation, class, or event, a refund or account credit may be provided as applicable.

Authorized staff may approve exceptions when appropriate.

---

12. Facility Closures and Equipment Availability

The Collaboratory may temporarily close facilities, restrict access, modify operating hours, or remove equipment from service because of:

- Maintenance
- Equipment failure
- Weather
- Emergencies
- Safety concerns
- Special events
- Staffing
- Circumstances outside our reasonable control

Membership does not guarantee continuous availability of any particular piece of equipment, room, service, or facility.

---

13. Waivers and Assumption of Risk

Certain activities require acceptance of separate waivers, acknowledgments of risk, safety agreements, or equipment-specific terms.

Those agreements are incorporated into the conditions governing participation in the applicable activity.

Nothing in these Terms is intended to waive rights that cannot legally be waived under applicable law.

---

14. Personal Property

Users are responsible for their personal belongings, materials, projects, and equipment brought into The Collaboratory.

To the extent permitted by law, The Collaboratory is not responsible for loss, theft, or damage to personal property except where liability cannot legally be excluded.

Separate rules may apply to projects or materials stored at the facility.

---

15. Suspension and Termination

The Collaboratory may suspend or terminate a user's membership, reservation privileges, equipment authorization, or facility access for reasons including:

- Serious or repeated safety violations
- Nonpayment
- Misuse of access credentials
- Unauthorized equipment use
- Harassment or threatening behavior
- Intentional property damage
- Material violations of these Terms or facility policies

Where appropriate, access may be suspended immediately when necessary to address a safety or security concern.

---

16. Electronic Communications

By providing contact information, you agree that The Collaboratory may send transactional communications concerning:

- Your account
- Membership
- Payments
- Reservations
- Classes
- Facility closures
- Safety notices
- Policy changes
- Other operational matters

Marketing communications will be handled according to applicable law and available communication preferences.

---

17. Changes to These Terms

The Collaboratory may update these Terms from time to time.

When material changes are made, we will provide notice as appropriate and update the effective date.

Users may be required to accept a revised version before continuing to access certain services or facilities.

---

18. Governing Law

These Terms are governed by the laws of the State of Maryland, without regard to conflict-of-law principles, except where applicable law requires otherwise.

Final governing-law, dispute-resolution, venue, and liability provisions should be reviewed by legal counsel before publication.

---

19. Contact

Questions regarding these Terms may be directed to:

The Collaboratory
info@thecollaboratory.com